Hi Tom,

Hope things are perking along well.

I hate to re-ignite an old flame, but can you tell me what the story is on the "Limestone" site down by Mexican Hat? It looks like you tried to get some communications going with a lady named Brooke Gaines, but it doesn't look like she or her husband, Billy, ever got back to us with a NOI or anything.

I stopped by there a couple of weeks ago and it looks like nothing has gone on since the last time you were down there. The site is on private property, so there is no agency to contact. I would have to get in touch with San Juan County property assessor to see if we can ID a property owner.

I'm probably opening up a can of worms on this one...

Thanks,

Mike,

I had generated a contact with this Brooke Gaines and like you gathered she never responded with anything. It is hard to get down there and also they are agreeable on the phone but never came through with anything. Sorry but that's all I know. Tom

No problem, Tom, that confirms my suspicions. I'll send them another SMO form to the address I found for them and see if I can get any response this time. If not, I'll follow up with a phone call and see what I can get out of them. At least they're still listed as being in business...but looking at their facility on Google Earth, I doubt they have much in the way of resources.

Thanks for getting back to me on it.
